THE IMPORTANCE OF HDX DAY OF GIVING

Hendrix Day of Giving is a day to honor and celebrate those in the Hendrix community who inspired you. On this day we ask alumni, parents and friends to come together in support of scholarships for deserving students with a gift of any amount. On April 4, 2019, please join us in celebrating the many ways that #HendrixInspires.

Increase the value of your gift with the Polk Stanley Wilcox Architects Challenge for Hendrix Day of Giving 2019. All new gifts and gifts of $200 or more will be matched, up to $5,000. With this challenge, your gift will help support even more deserving Hendrix students.

By participating in our Day of Giving, you will make a difference for so many students who may not be able to attend Hendrix without financial support.

APRIL 4, 2019

Will you give to honor those who inspired you?
#HENDRIXINSPIRES— yesterday, today, and tomorrow.

“Dr. Bruce Haggard (Biology) challenged me to take my effort to the next level and never settle for good enough. I am reaping the benefits today of the confidence and attention to detail he helped instill.”

GARY BERNER, 2007

“I will always remember the happy and caring staff who worked in the Hendrix cafeteria. Their smiling faces and thoughtful conversations with students still inspire me today and show me that each of us can create a friendly and supportive environment wherever we live and work.”

PLES SPRADLEY, 2015

WHY I GIVE #HENDRIXINSPIRES

“Dr. Teague (Chemistry) and Bill Hawes (Art) each taught me to see the relationship between the arts and sciences and to view the world through a different lens than I ever had before.”

SUSAN ROBBINS, 1986
